DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

From the New Orleans Crescent.

ANOTHER AMENDMENT PROPOSED TO CONFIRM RADICAL DESPOTISM.

Since the rejection of the negro suffrage proposition in every Northern State in which it has been submitted to a vote of the people, the radicals have been considering two methods for establishing the measure throughout the country in spite of popular opposition in particular States. One of these methods is that advocated by Stevens and Sumner, who propose that Congress shall assume the power to universalize negro suffrage by simple enactment. To this plan some other radical politicians object that many Republicans are doubtful of its constitutionality; that it would be tested in the courts, and probably set aside as unconstitutional by judicial decision; and that it would be liable to repeal whenever an anti-radical majority should be elected to Congress. They want to accomplish it in a way that will assure its permanence. They propose to place it beyond the reach of the popular vote in the various States, beyond the reach of judicial decision, and beyond the reach of any future anti-radical majority in Congress, by putting it in the shape of an amendment to the Constitution of the United States. Thus the same men who have heretofore pleaded the support of a popular majority, as sufficient sanction for all manner of usurpation and revolution, involved in proceedings which they admitted to be wholly outside of the Constitution, are now anxious to find shelter under the Constitution for a favorite measure to which late elections in the North indicate that the popular majority is decidedly opposed. This inconsistency is by no means marvelous. Radicalism is essentially tyrannical and retrograde in all its instincts and movements. It has no more respect for the rights of majorities than it has for the rights of minorities. Having lost, apparently, the sanction of the popular majority in the North, it now studies how it may intrench itself against popular reprobation by means of an amendment of the Constitution, engineered through with the aid of the negroized States of the South.

The St. Louis Democrat, one of the Radical journals which is for universalizing negro suffrage by the plan above indicated, thinks that much precious time has been lost by the failure of the 39th Congress to submit the amendment to the State legislatures of the North, before their political complexion could be affected by the elections of the present year. All those Legislatures having been heretofore Republican, such an amendment, it is thought, would have been ratified in almost every Northern State, and would now be certain of adoption through the ratification of the Radical Legislatures yet to be created in the Southern States now undergoing reconstruction. Still, in the opinion of the Democrat, it is not too late. Wherefore that journal remarks:

"We trust that such an amendment will be proposed by Congress at its coming session. True, there are a few Northern legislatures which would have ratified it promptly one year ago, but will not now until after another election. But these are few. Connecticut, Maryland, Ohio, Kentucky, Delaware and California, would probably vote against the amendment. We do not now know of any other State which would refuse to ratify it. The whole South and nearly the whole North would approve it. It might be adopted and the vexed question settled forever, before the close of the year 1868."

To the above list of States which are to be counted against the amendment, New York and New Jersey must certainly be added; and to these it would not be unreasonable to add Minnesota and Kansas, the people of which have just refused to amend their State Constitutions so as to extend suffrage equally to blacks and whites. For it is scarcely to be supposed that their representatives in the legislatures of those States would attempt to impose upon them, in the shape of an amendment to the United States Constitution, a measure which they had decidedly rejected when submitted to them in the shape of an amendment to their State Constitutions. With Kansas and Minnesota, there would be ten Northern States opposed to the contemplated amendment, a sufficient number to defeat the ratification by the legislatures of three-fourths of all the States, which is necessary to the adoption of an amendment to the United States Constitution. Hence it is by no means to be presumed that, should the radicals be able to count for the amendment every legislature South of the Potomac, they would then be sure of carrying their purpose.

But let us suppose that the amendment will be adopted, owing to its unanimous ratification by the reconstructed States.—How will this ratification have been obtained? Why, by reason of negro suffrage having first been established and made supreme in those States by act of Congress. Yet, as we have seen, it is for the alleged purpose of getting over the unconstitutionality attaching to such legislation that this amendment is advocated. In point of fact, it is that very legislation, triumphantly operating in the South, which will be relied upon to secure the adoption of the amendment. Nor is this all. The legislatures in the South upon whose ratification of the amendment the radicals must depend for universalizing negro suffrage, will represent not more perhaps than one third of the Southern population; and the legislatures in the North, confined mostly to the New England and other small States, which are expected to complete the requisite three-fourths, will represent less than one-half, perhaps, of the Northern population. Thus Congress will have contrived to effect a radical change in the Constitution by the votes of a Southern minority made voters by its own legislation, and will have subjected the whole country to the domination of this minority. Is it possible that the people will patiently behold the consummation of this, or of some even more direct process for making negro supremacy in the South the basis of a central tyranny over the whole country?

[From the National Intelligencer.]

The recent elections indicate conclusively condemnation of the Radicals. That condemnation would lose half its significance if it could be traced to any mere party source.—Negro suffrage went with Mr. Wade in Ohio. In that high judgment we find the basis of the great triumph of the Constitution over fanaticism and treason. It is the voice of the people upon all the measures of reconstruction. It is the condemnation of the people of every one of those treasonable acts which have intercepted the great work of restoring the Union in the spirit of honest brotherhood. We say with all emphasis, that the rebellion itself, with all its forces, did not more directly infringe the authority of the Union, nor half so much violate the fundamental principles of free government, as the system of laws put in operation by the Radicals. If the war to put down the Confederates was demanded unanimously on the part of the North, it was because by the war it was proposed to restore the old system in all its integrity; so now unanimity is imperative on the part of the people, that we may repeal all those laws of the Radicals which stand in the way of complete restoration. It is no special mission of party to accomplish this great work.—Even partisan appeals sound oddly in its prosecution. The issue is higher and broader. The end is national, the field is national, and all the agencies in its accomplishment should be national.

Now a few words to my customers and friends: You see a great many different styles of advertisements. Some say they are in "luck again;" some say they have "hit the nail on the head;" some "selling out at cost;" some to "make room for a new stock;" some one thing and some another. But allow me to say, whether I am in luck, or whether I hit the nail on the head, or whether I missed the nail entirely, or failed to advertise "selling out at cost," I have sold out my old stock, (while they are still hammering away over their old stock,) and have been North and bought a new stock. My goods are now in Store, and opened for inspection.

COME AND LOOK AT THEM.

I told my customers, six months ago, that I would sell goods as cheap as Yankee, Jew or Gentile, and I think I have made my word good.

I told the people to come to Creech's to buy their goods, that I would serve them right. Hundreds have come, and they are still coming from this and adjoining Counties. And I here take the privilege to say, I think they have shown their good judgment.

Don't forget to come to Great attention paid to consignments of Cotton, Corn, Wheat, Rosin, &c. &c. All produce forwarded at the lowest possible rates.

THE CONGRESSIONAL RECONSTRUCTION.

Editors of newspapers, who write so much, cannot be expected to stop at every sentence to explain, or to fill up a gap at every point, in order to avoid misrepresentation or misconstruction. It would be rude in them to suppose that their readers, like so many children, needed every day to have their principles restated or repeated, so as to prevent misconception. They should, at least, attribute to their readers some memory of the past, and some capacity to judge as well as themselves, without undertaking the hum-drum task of going through the daily routine of teaching the a b c.

These remarks are drawn from us by the observation of a cotemporary, that the Sentinel had been in favor of, or an advocate of, the Congressional Reconstruction policy. If by this was meant that the Sentinel has all along favored quiet submission to law, —the bearing with becoming fortitude and composure what was forced on us by the sword, and an effort to ward off or defeat whatever went in excess of a harsh and rigorous law, our cotemporary was correct. Or if it was meant, that we were so fully committed to a speedy reconstruction, that we warmly urged our people to register and to vote for a Convention, both as a matter of policy and also to testify our anxiety and readiness to promote early restoration, then it is so far correct. Or if it was meant, that in our anxiety to avoid the bitterness and rancor of the Radicals in carrying out their ideas of reconstruction, and to beat back their designs, we consented to accept as a platform, if they were determined to force it on us, the Reconstruction Acts themselves, in preference to the wicked schemes of the ultra Radicals, this is also true.

But that the Sentinel ever advocated the Reconstruction policy of Congress, or favored it, in the least, as sound, or wise, or just in principle, or constitutional, we deny. We have never, in these columns or anywhere else, expressed any other opinion of the Howard amendment or of universal negro suffrage, or of the right of Congress to place the Southern States under military rule, but that of abhorrence and opposition.

We saw, at a very early period, two extreme results which would follow the action of the white people of the South on this question, both of which we believed would do harm. First, we saw that a class of men, some of them bad, others timid, fearful, and anxious to swim, would, sacrificing all manhood, go pell-mell into the arms of negro-dom, many of whom would never repent until it was too late. The opposite class, the great body of the whites, prompted by their manhood, and disgusted with the Congressional programme, we saw would have nothing to do with it, and thus, if the revolution went on and became the policy of the nation, would either be compelled to leave their homes or remain life long disfranchised persons. To prevent the success of the first party and the political ruin of the second, in a certain contingency, we determined to urge upon the great body of our people to put themselves in a position of possible safety, by registration, and by the effort, if a Convention carried, to place the control of it in such hands, as would secure the mastery of the situation to the white people of the State.

The idea of universal negro suffrage is an after thought with the Republican party, but they saw, at the time they embraced it, that it was easier carried than its first position, impartial or manhood suffrage. It was easy to be seen, that no portion of the white people of the United States would disfranchise themselves, in order to enfranchise a few colored people. But the defeat of the negrophilists, we believe, is so near at hand and will be so overwhelming, that we trust a more wise, just and intelligent proposition, both to the white and colored races, may be agreed upon and settled.

In spite of our anxiety to give due credit to the intelligence of any of our friends who may have embraced the dogma of immediate universal negro suffrage in the Southern States, we cannot rid ourselves of the conviction that it is a pure fallacy, a monomania or a fanaticism, without a shadow of reason, of right or of Scripture to support it. A calm and thorough exposition, historically, politically and morally, of the results, if carried out, of this huge humbug, would be overwhelmingly crushing.

What the colored people need, and are capable of appreciating or using properly, for their own good and the good of the whole country, we are entirely in favor of bestowing upon them, at a proper time and in a proper way. But the evidence before us is palpable, in all the States where Conventions have been called, that neither the negroes themselves elected, nor the whites they have chosen to represent them, are endowed with attributes of humanity, intelligence or virtue enough, if concentrated in one man, to make a single respectable delegate in a Convention to form a State Constitution!

TWO DAYS given to North Carolina, from and after to morrow, may save you years of misery and oppression. Remember that, —and work, fellow-citizens of Raleigh, as you never did in an election before.

THE GREAT PACIFICATOR.

There is no name to day more precious to the American people, than that of HENRY CLAY, of Kentucky, and for nothing do his eminent services to his country arouse the gratitude of the nation more, than for those efforts which secured to him the title of "the great Peace Maker."

Never, in the history of the nation, were the offices of the Peace-Maker so much needed, as at the present time. Never before was the government in a more critical position than at present. But where is the man who can move in this matter? Where is the man who has the statesmanship and the unselfishness of Henry Clay, who would "rather be right than be President?"

Chief-Justice Chase, if he could forget that his name had ever been connected with the Presidency, or ever would be, might perhaps do something. If Gen. Grant had the statesmanship, his present position might enable him to end this strife and place the peace and quiet of the nation upon enduring foundations. But is he the man for the hour? Alas! that the country has so many politicians, but so few statesmen.

A most able and timely article of the New York World, on the "path to peace," a few days ago, is likely to arrest public attention to the absolute necessity of early pacification, and we sincerely hope may lead to good results.

The propriety and the policy of the Republican party, at this juncture, that it should very carefully count the cost, before it jeopards its remaining strength upon the hazard of universal negro suffrage or nothing, must be patent to every one. The public mind, both North and South, is open to propositions which must carry along with them the great mass of the intelligence and virtue of the land. A settlement is needed, and ought to be had, if possible, before the Presidential election, so permeated with the elements of sound statesmanship, the commanding intelligence, the humanity, the justice and the virtue of our whole people, as to strike dumb at once all cavillers and agitators.

The World very properly and wisely thinks that the scheme of pacification should be so constructed as to command the support of full three-fourths of the people of all the States. It shows the impossibility of uniting the nation harmoniously upon the Radical scheme of Reconstruction. It further affirms the utter rout and defeat of the Republican party, if it attempts to force its policy upon the country in the next Presidential election. And it suggests that gentlemen of Conservative views might very properly convene at some point, from all the States, to consider and indicate this plan of pacification.

The World further presents its own views of the general line of policy, all of which strike us as eminently practical, conceived in the right spirit and full of moderation. We sincerely hope that the bread cast upon the waters, by the World, may be so gathered up and digested as to lead to an early pacification.

WHITE MEN OF RALEIGH!

We have but three words to say to you; and they are vote, VOTE, VOTE!

VOTE TO-MORROW! Do not delay until Wednesday. After voting yourselves, see that your neighbors vote likewise. Let not a white vote be lost, and the day is ours!

THE CONSERVATIVE MISTAKE IN GEORGIA.

It is proposed to hold a State Convention of the Conservatives in Georgia, at an early day. The Columbus Enquirer, in heartily favoring the suggestion, says that the policy of non-action by the Conservatives will not answer. Had it simply failed, it says, to prevent the calling of a Convention in the late election, that would have been a result which could not have been avoided by any course; but it has a number of Conservative delegates, that might have been secured by more active effort. The Enquirer adds:

"We do not mean to censure our friends for trying that policy, for Gen. Pope's apportionment schedule left them no chance whatever to obtain a majority of the delegates, and the only hope they could have of accomplishing anything in that election was by the defeat of the Convention in the aggregate popular vote. This hope failed, either because of divisions among our friends as to the best mode of accomplishing that object, or because many, who are opposed to the consummation of the Congressional scheme, could not be satisfied of the policy of opposing or defeating it in the vote on the Convention question. It behooves us now to profit by the unlucky experience of the past, and to harmonize upon some mode of operations promising better results."

LABORING MEN OF RALEIGH! Do you not remember how the Radical organ in this City, which has, within a few days, affected such a love for you, some months since arraigned the Town authorities, because, as it alleged, some of you were employed on the streets, and otherwise, to the exclusion of negroes? We know that you do, and that none of you will vote the Black Radical ticket!

DANIEL G. FOWLE,
BENNETT T. BLAKE,
PRIESTLY H. MANGUM,
JOHN A. McLEAN.

That is the People's Ticket. Do not erase a solitary name and substitute a Black Radical. If you do, you are contributing, by so much, to put North Carolina in the hands of such men as are now upheaving all the foundations of law, order and society in Alabama!

BY ALL MEANS, if possible, let us have a list of the colored men who vote the Conservative ticket, or who stay away from the polls, because the pressure is so great upon them that they dare not vote that ticket, as they otherwise would. Let such men be shown that their conduct is appreciated by their white friends.

A FULL WHITE vote is a Conservative triumph! Bear that in mind.

Special Correspondence of the Baltimore Gazette.

THE TRIAL OF MR. DAVIS—THE NEGRO MILITARY SQUABBLE—THE JUDICIARY COMMITTEE AND THE CASE OF SENATOR THOMAS—POPE'S PARDONS—GRANT'S POSITION.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15, 1867.

The counsel engaged for the prosecution of Jefferson Davis, consisting of Attorney Chandler, Gen. Wells, and Wm. M. Evarts and Richard H. Dana, Esqs., had a protracted interview with the Attorney General this morning. The consultation resulted, I am informed, in nothing definite As included in the Executive part of the Government, Mr. Stanberry cannot be said, with accuracy, to have anything to do with this farcical trial. But he must needs, as connected with the Judiciary department, give advice when requested by his subordinate legal officers.—In this matter, or any other of a similar character, he has little authority. The whole thing rests with the Court. I have already stated that it is very doubtful whether Judge Chase will preside as the chief Judge, although for some unaccountable reason Chandler is very anxious that he should.—You will see by telegrams from Richmond that Mr. Davis will be tried, (if tried at all,) by a jury composed chiefly of negroes.—The trial will lose, therefore, all the moral weight sought to be attatched to it by the politicians. So far as it may affect Mr. Davis himself, it may very well be left to the common sense of mankind. Judge Chase is now in Richmond.

The Chronicle officially announces that the negroes will disregard the order of the President for their disbandment. It audaciously declares that "the colored militia squabble remains in statu quo, as the President has made no new demonstrations since the report from Gen. Emory that he had no authority to act in the premises. It is proposed, however, that inasmuch as the notifications to suspend the parades have thus far been served on the commanding officers only by persons who admit that they have no legal authority to interfere, one or more of the companies shall parade through the avenue on the occasion of the assembling of Congress, and thereby give his Accidency an opportunity for a grand 'coup d'etat d' Afrique.'"

I learn that the Judiciary Committee of the Senate have had an informal meeting—that is, a meeting has been held of those members now here. The case of Senator Thomas has not yet been considered, but I hear that some of the Committee have expressed disgust at the paucity of proof compared with the bravado of the allegations.—No doubt is entertained but that he will be admitted to his seat at the regular session.

It seems to be the policy of the nabob of the Third Military District to proscribe "all who have not," and to pardon all who "have, recommended themselves to him by their exertions in behalf of the Congressional plan of reconstruction." The following is the official announcement:

"It is ascertained that General Pope will send to Congress, at its next session, a list of names of prominent Georgians, who, though disfranchised by reason of their participation in the rebellion, have recommended themselves to him by their exertions in behalf of the Congressional plan of reconstruction as proper persons to be included in a special act of pardon or amnesty. The Alabama Convention now in session is considering a similar proposition, doubtless suggested by Gen. Pope, and will provide, in the Constitution which it is now framing, for the enfranchisement, so far as State authority can do it, of that class of men."

Gen. Grant's mouth has become sealed under the gag law prescribed by his "Committee," since the fact has become apparent that what he says will surely meet the public eye. The Star of this city is responsible for the following proof of this:

"J. M. Morphis, Esq., editor of a paper in Texas, this morning called at the War Department, and had an interview with Gen. Grant. During the conversation Mr. Morphis said to the General that the people in his section were determined to support him for President, and hoped he would be elected. Gen. Grant immediately turned the conversation to another subject. Mr. Morphis again brought up the subject of the Presidency and said—'General, we want to run you for President, and I want to know what I can say when I return home.' Gen. Grant replied, 'Say nothing sir. I want nothing said.'"

From the Asheville News.

REACTION AT HOME.

MR. EDITOR:—Becoming convinced that we entered the Union League organization under false representations made to us, you will please announce through your columns that we have come out from them, and washed our hands of the unclean thing.—As white men, we cannot consent to place our beloved State in the hands of ignorant negroes.

SOLOMON KING,
W. E. KING,
ROBERT GREEN,
JOHN JONES,
JOS. W. RANDAL,
ALBERT G. RAMSEY.

We are pleased to record the above bold and manly course, and can state that hundreds of other men have concluded to do likewise, in this section. It is but the beginning of the end of Radicalism at the South.

Negro rulers and confiscation by a negro party, for the benefit of those negro rulers, will not be swallowed by truly loyal and independent men of the State. The ball is rolling twards a happy issue out of our present difficulties. In a few months, it will be hard to find a man who had joined the Union Leagues, that will not be ashamed of it.

IS IT TRUE?—We have been told, by those who heard him say it, that George Washington Gahagan, one of the negro-supremacy, confiscation candidates, hailing from Madison county, has openly avowed himself in favor of confiscation, by a division of the lands of Western North Carolina; and not content with one division, if our population should increase, he would divide again, and so keep on dividing until all the lands were divided into small lots. That's an encouraging doctrine for those who would like to buy land and emigrate to this section. We don't think we could be induced to buy lands under such a system. And we don't think we could be induced to vote for any man entertaining such a scheme of agrarianism, particularly if we owned a small farm. We admit his generosity, with other people's property, but doubt the honesty of the plan.—Asheville News.

Few of us read our Bibles so curiously as to have discovered that they contain no such word as its from Genesis to Revelations.—Exchange.

The above, which is having a wide circulation, is an error. There is one, and only one, place in the Bible where the word occurs. The fifth verse of the twenty-fifth chapter of Leviticus reads as follows: "That which groweth of its own accord of thy harvest thou shalt not reap, neither gather the grapes of the vineyard undressed; for it is a year of rest unto the land."—Another Exchange.

THE PRESIDENT'S SPEECH ON OCCASION OF THE LATE COMPLIMENTARY SERENADE.

FELLOW CITIZENS: It is not my intention to make an address upon this occasion, but simply to tender you my thanks for this demonstration—a demonstration approbating what your fellow citizens have declared in the recent elections in the various States of the Union. They will appreciate your response to what they have done, and send back the greeting that the Union of the states must be maintained according to the original design of our fathers. I confess that I am gratified, but not surprised, at the result of the recent elections. I have always had undoubting confidence in the people. They may sometimes be misled by a lying spirit in the mouths of their prophets, but never perverted, and in the end they are always right. In the gloomiest hours through which I have passed—and many of them, God knows, have been dark enough—when our constitution was in the utmost peril, when our free institutions were assailed by a formidable force, and our great republic seemed to be tottering to its fall, and when I felt how vain were my efforts alone to preserve those institutions in their integrity, and to save the republic from ruin, I was still hopeful. I had an abiding confidence in the people and was assured that they in their might would come to the rescue. They have come, and thank God they have come, and that our republic may yet be saved. It was but the other day that I officially declared that the remedy for the present unhappy condition of the country must come from the people themselves. They know what that remedy is and how it is to be applied. At the present time they cannot, according to the forms of the constitution, repeal obnoxious laws. They cannot remove or control this military despotism. The remedy is, nevertheless, in their hands, and is a sure one it not controlled by fraud, overawed by arbitrary power, or from apathy on their part, too long delayed. But with abiding confidence in their patriotism, wisdom, and integrity, I am still hopeful that in the end the rod of despotism will be broken, the armed heel of power lifted from the necks of the people, and the principles of a violated constitution preserved.

The people have spoken in a manner not to be misunderstood. Thank God, they have spoken, for it is upon their intelligence and their integrity that I have always relied, and still rely. The constitution of the country, which was imperilled, has recently been before them for consideration, and it has had new life and vigor imparted to it from its original source—the people. It comes back to us with renewed strength and power. Let it now be translated as high as the heavens, written in letters of living light as the symbol of liberty and Union, justice, magnanimity and fraternity. Good night.

The President was cheered during the delivery of the speech and also on its conclusion, and retired from the stand amid repeated cheers and instrumental music.

GOV. VANCE IN CABARRUS.

On Tuesday afternoon Governor Zeb. B. Vance delivered one of the most sensible speeches that it has been our good fortune to listen to for years. He commenced by saying that it afforded him pleasure at all times and under all circumstances to address the good people of the Old North State; that he had enjoyed more political advantages than any other man, age or no age, in the State—that he had enjoyed the confidence of the honest, the virtuous, the patriotic and the good of the State; and at the same time had heaped upon him all the venom and opprobrium of the blackguards and scallawags; that although he was disfranchised, he still had the liberty of addressing his fellow-citizens, and that it afforded him great pleasure to talk to and with them.

He exposed, in a telling style, the enormities of the Secret Associations known as Leagues, Red Strings, &c—stated that at Union, where he addressed a large audience, that many "good and true" men, who had been inveigled into these associations, had come out openly, defiantly and boldly, and stated that the object of these associations had no good in them—that they had withdrawn themselves from them and advised all others to come out—"be none of them."

The Governor then addressed himself to the colored portion of his audience, of whom many were present; and in an honest, plain, straight forward manner, convinced them that their real and true friends were not the strolling, itinerant Yankees—of the Praise-God-barebones style—not the mean sneaking whites of the Holden style, who were striving to ride into office on the shoulders of the negro; who cared naught for him, but for his vote; who were making a political catapaw of him; who paid him in mean whisky and red calico, but their old masters, as a general rule, and the men who paid them up like white men for their labor, were their real, not pretended friends. He told them he was willing to accord to them all the rights and immunities that they were entitled to, and hoped that they might yet be useful and good citizens.

In the main his talk was pertinent, well timed, sensible, and had a good effect on those who heretofore differed with him on the present political issues of the day.

After the Governor retired from the stand, calls were made for Blume, Coleman, and Rufus Barringer. They failing to come to time, "three times three cheers" were given with a hearty will for Zeb. Vance and the Conservative Party.—Concord Press.

SOUTHERN AGITATORS.—A dispatch from Richmond states that one of the ranting negro delegates to the Virginia Convention has been arrested, and will be tried by a military commission, for using language calculated to array the blacks and whites against each other. It is high time that some action were taken to stop the inflammatory course of such characters as the one referred to, but why pounce upon the black agitator and allow the more culpable white ones to escape? There are white agitators all over the South of the Hunnicutt pattern, who are doing everything in their power to array the blacks against the whites. The negroes being ignorant and easily misled, the inflammatory teachings of the Hunnicutts are really dangerous. The largest liberty should be extended to the Southern Radicals, compatible with public safety; but when they overstep that limit and attempt to embroil the blacks in strife with the whites, they should be promptly suppressed.—N. Y. Sun (Radical.)

IMPEACHMENT AND DISQUALIFICATION.—The radical leaders in Congress have been exhausting their legal knowledge and argumentative powers in the attempt to prove that a public officer, when impeached, is debarred from exercising his official functions pending his trial and the final verdict. Well, the people have impeached the radical Congress, in the recent elections, for high crimes and misdemeanors against the government. We insist that the radical representatives, if they desire to be consistent, must immediately put on their hats and overcoats, vacate their seats and leave Washington. They may depend upon it that the final verdict will never put them back again.—N. Y. Herald.

We hereby certify that the Rosadalis is prepared by a Physician, who is an experienced Pharmaceutist and Chemist, and that his remedy is an efficient and reliable one in SCROFULA, Syphilis, &c., it having performed some remarkable cures in this vicinity.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir—Please send me immediately per Express to Tarboro, two dozen more bottles of your Rosadalis. I have carefully examed its Formula, and have used it in my practice in a number of cases. I am well pleased with it. I think it, beyond doubt, the best Alterative I ever used. I have tried it in several cases of Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, &c., with much satisfaction to myself and patients. I have also used it in Secondary and Teritary Syphilis, [one a terrible case of eight years' standing,] in which it acted with surprising and satisfactory effect—making a quick and thorough cure. I have, therefore, no hesitation in recommending it to Physicians and others, as the most reliable Alterative now known.

Respectfully yours, &c.,

A Wonderful Cure of Scrofulous White Swelling.

HOME CERTIFICATE.

I hereby certify, that last September I was attacked with White Swelling of the left knee—and also with an enlargement of the glands of the neck—[one tumor reached a large size.] The swelling of the knee was enormous, and was attended with the most excruciating pains. I was so reduced that I was confined to my room over three months. My legs were so completely drawn up, that I could not bend it at all. I tried various remedies, and they failed to give me any relief. I was in this condition when I commenced taking Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis. The swelling in the knee and neck began to subside before I took all of the first bottle. By the time I took the second bottle, the swelling of the neck entirely disappeared and that of the knee nearly so. After taking three bottles I found myself completely well—able to walk as well as ever, &c.

HOME CERTIFICATE.

Wilson, N. C., May 6th, 1867.

I hereby certify that I was cured of long standing Chronic Rheumatism, by taking four bottles of Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis.

JAMES WILLIS.

Rosadalis cures Carbuncles, Boils, Pimples, &c.

Certificate from an old and much respected citizen of Greene County, now a resident of Wilson, N. C.

I hereby certify that, during the summer and fall of 1866, that I was severely afflicted with Carbuncles—having had as many as fourteen large Carbuncles, and twelve ordinary Boils. I suffered so much from them that I could not get out of the house half the time for several months. Being induced to try Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, I was entirely cured by the use of one bottle of that truly valuable medicine.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

THE ELECTION TO-MORROW.

The Polls will be opened at 8 o'clock, at the Court House, and such arrangements have been made as will prevent confusion or disorder and facilitate the voting.

The following persons have been designated as Poll-holders, and will be appropriately assigned to duty, viz: Joseph T. Backalan, Franklin Pierce, C. W. Horner, and T. N. Ramsay, whites; and J. R. Caswell and J. K. Williams, colored.

The following instructions have been received from Gen. Canby and will be observed. They are communicated in General Order, No. 119:

Boards of registration will provide each polling place with one ballot-box, with lock and key, not to exceed two dollars per box. Names and residences of persons voting to be entered on poll lists.

At the close of election, managers of election will count the votes polled, compare result with poll list, and correct errors, if possible.

Tickets for Convention, and those against Convention, will be placed in packages by themselves—the number contained to be marked thereon. Those that are informal, but the same in substance, by themselves in separate packages, for and against. Tickets which do not contain the inscription for and against Convention to be put by themselves; number in each package to be marked.

Thereupon, packages will be replaced in boxes, and sealed with the seal of the managers of election, and will be delivered by the Chairman, with poll lists and books of registration, to Chairman of Board of registration to which such polling place belongs.

The Board of registration will count the votes in the respective packages, compare them with the poll lists and will canvass votes for and against a Convention and for delegates, and enter a summary of votes in printed canvass lists, and will replace votes in the same packages in which they were placed by the managers, and forward the same to Headquarters.

P. S.—Since the foregoing was written, we have been furnished with the following "Notice to Voters:"

ATTENTION! VOTERS.

The attention of all, who have registered their names and will vote at Raleigh, is directed to the following:

The Polls will be opened at the Court House, at 8 o'clock, Tuesday, and closed at 4 P. M. The same hours will be observed on Wednesday.

There will be two ballot-boxes open for the reception of votes—one on each end of the Judge's bench, opposite the entrance to the jury-boxes.

The voters will form two lines of one file each—the first file passing to Box No. 1, and the other to Box No. 2, between the Attorney's bar and the jury boxes; then to the rear of the jury boxes, out of the door, down stairs.

No gatherings will be allowed inside the Court House room, and so soon as any one has voted, he will be required to pass out immediately.

Neither will disorderly conduct be allowed, and all are expected to observe the utmost decorum upon this important occasion.

Jos. T. Backalan, C. W. Horner, T. N. Ramsay, Franklin Pierce, J. R. Caswell, J. K. Williams, } Poll Holders.

NEW SYSTEM OF PAROCHIAL CONTRIBUTIONS.—We understand that a somewhat novel, and, it impresses us, effective mode of raising the necessary Parochial fund, for the support of the clergyman and incidental objects, is about to be adopted in the congregation of Christ Church (Episcopal) in this City. It is called the Envelope System and is said to have been successfully practiced elsewhere.

The plan is to furnish each adult member of the congregation with a package of 52 small envelopes, (about the size of a fifty-cents fractional currency note,) in one of which, on each Sunday, will be enclosed such a weekly contribution, for the purposes above designated, as the person may think himself or herself able to give, and which will be deposited in the offertory, with the name of the contributor endorsed on the envelope. This is intended to supersede the old plan of assessment. Many persons, too, who may, at any one time, find it inconvenient or impossible to pay the whole amount of an assessment, can readily pay the amount, and, doubtless, a larger amount, in weekly instalments, without feeling the pressure.

There are other particulars of the plan, but these are the general features, and, for the times, it really strikes us as a feasible and appropriate system.

NEW HANOVER.—Messrs. O. G. Parsley, Dr. S. S. Satchwell, and Dr. Wm. E. Freeman, will be supported for the Convention by the Conservatives of New Hanover.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—The meeting of the Stockholders of the Wilmington and Manchester Railroad Company, heretofore announced to take place in Wilmington, on the 28th inst., will take place on Wednesday, the 27th,—the former day having been appointed, by the President and Governor, as a day of Thanksgiving.

Builders' Materials, Mechanics' Tools, &c: Mitchell, Allen & Co., Newbern.

Sealed proposals for renting the Hotel at Company Shops, belonging to the North Carolina Railroad Co., will be received until December 19th.

Notice to Bond holders of the North Carolina Railroad Co: Josiah Turner, Jr., President.

Horses and Mules at Auction to-day: J. M. Towles, Auctioneer.

REV. BENNETT T. BLAKE, one of the Conservative candidates for the Convention, addressed the people, at Tucker Hall, on Saturday night. There was quite a large audience, and Mr. B. spoke for upwards of an hour, in an earnest, practical way.—There are few sounder thinkers, and nowhere a more honest, ingenuous and candid man, than Bennett T. Blake.

BEAUFORT COUNTY.—We judge that the election of Messrs. Gorham and Stickney, the Conservative candidates in Beaufort, is certain. Yielding their assent to run at an early day on the Conservative ticket, this entitles them to the hearty and full support of the Conservatives of that County. We are, however, disposed to think, from what we hear privately, that it is premature for the Radicals to claim Col. Rodman, though he may be committed, to some extent, to the Congressional platform. We judge, from what we hear, that he consented to run to gratify the wishes of some of his friends, both white and black, without being fully committed to any party,—leaving himself at liberty to do what he may think best for his constituents. In this position, he cannot claim Conservative votes.

AN INFAMOUS THREAT.—We hear that many white men would abandon the Union Leagues, but are threatened by the leaders with trial for perjury. Why, gentlemen, they have no more power to try you than the horse thief, Murrell, had to punish any of his gang who bolted from the oath he administered to them.

Where do they get their power to administer oaths? The whole concern is illegal, and traitorous to the constitution.—Come out from them at once.—Ashville News.

It is a suggestive fact that many even of the country papers throughout the North are beginning to advocate the repeal of the cotton tax. When the current of public opinion drifts so strongly that newspapers representing no great manufacturing interests feel its influence, it is not difficult to predict the speedy result.—Forney's Press.

The New York Tribune, after saying that "most of the ignorance, depravity, and dirt to be found at the North votes the Democratic ticket," with admirable and exemplary frankness admits that "the Republican party at the South corresponds in social position to the Democratic party at the North."

General Wood says, in writing from Brazil, that the ladies, on being introduced to a stranger, insist upon being embraced, "heart throbbing against heart." Ho for Brazil!

A Democratic paper having asserted that "Gen. Sherman is the coming man," the Lagrange (Ga.) Reporter replies: "We shall be sorry if he comes this way again; we don't want to see him."

Science should ere this have invented and produced a cheap and safe fuel. Let us be able to turn on heat as we do light.—National Republican.

It is said that we are soon to be favored with a visit from John Stuart Mill.

THAD. STEVENS' VIEWS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16—P. M.

Thad. Stevens is quoted as follows: "We must take no steps backwards. The reconstruction of the Southern States, on the basis of the military bill, must be hurried up, so that as many as possible of them may be represented in the coming Presidential Nominating Convention.

The Republican party will assuredly elect their nominee in the next Presidential contest, and there is no need to run after or coax any man into accepting their nomination. In less than three years they can recover the Northern States, and with the Federal patronage the loyal white element of the South can always carry the negro population with them, and thus give the party a lease of power for the next fifty years."

MISCELLANEOUS.

Large Grape Farm For Sale.

THIS FARM IS SITUATED IN HALIFAX County, North Carolina, in a very healthy and pleasant neighborhood. It contains over of which 300 are in cultivation. The soil is well adapted to the growing of Corn, Cotton, Wheat, Grass and all the cereals. It contains

500 ACRES OF LAND,

3,000 VINES NOW BEARING GRAPES.

These Vines are mostly of the Scuppernong variety, and for 25 years there has not been a failure in this variety to produce its crop. It is the most healthy, the most vigorous and the most productive of any vine yet discovered. 1,000 gallons of Wine may be made from ONE ACRE OF VINES. The wine is said to equal any Madeira, and a Champagne Wine may be made from it. One single Vine has been known to produce TWO HUNDRED GALLONS of Wine AT ONE CROP. For eating, the Scuppernong Grape is far ahead of all others. The crop for 1868 from this Vineyard may be safely estimated at from 5,000 to 7,000 gallons. It contains, also, over of choice varieties, the earliest and latest; and also, a fine variety of

PEACHES, FIGS, PEARS AND CHERRIES.

This Farm has all the necessary Buildings, and is situated in a portion of North Carolina which is FREE FROM CHILLS, and where the water is delightful, and the climate pleasant. The cold is never severe enough to injure vines, however delicate, and there is no need of protection from it at any time.

The above is a fine opening for a profitable investment. Apply to GARRETT & CO.,

DAILY SENTINEL.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 1867.

MY FATHER'S HALF BUSHEL.

The following is substituted to the pen of Rev. C. T. Brooks:

My father's half-bushel comes oft to my mind,
And wakens dead feelings of various sorts;
'Twas a honest half-bushel, a noble half-bushel;
It held a half-bushel of thirty-two quarts!

When I think of that bushel—my father's half-bushel,
That dear old half bushel, so honest and true—
Then look at the bushels—our city half-bushels
Little dandy half-bushels—it makes me fee. blue!

Oh, my father's half-bushel, that country half-bushel,
Say when with blest vision its like shall I see?
'Twas a blessed half-bushel, and he was a true man,
For he filled his half-bushel, and something threw free!

Yet all the half-bushels, if mean, are not small:
I'm vexed with the big ones still more am more;
Oh, mark out that salesman's the next time he shal call;
You see his half-bushel holds quarts sixty-four

'Tis a fact I am stating—no slanders I utter—
But who can forbear, when cheated, to mutter?
In New York a barrel—I pray you don't laugh—
Will not hold so much ashes as potatoes by half

Oh, what are the lawyers, and what are the laws
But bugbears and phantoms—mere feathers o straws!
Unless our half-bushels are all made as one,
Like father's half-bushel, I say, we re undone!

From the Richmond Dispatch.

THE METEORIC SHOWER AS SEEN IN RICHMOND.

Modern astronomical researches render i almost certain that there are numerou streams of nebulous matter circulating a large in space in very much the same manner as the comets. About the year 134, according to the researches of Le Verrier, th Director of the Imperial Observatory o Paris, one of these streams was pouring across the orbit of Uranus, and by chance approached so near to that planet that its attraction was sufficiently powerful to render it a permanent member of the solar system, by changing the form of its orbit t an ellipse, one extremity of which lies i the neighborhood of the path of Uranus, and the other extremity of which passe around the sun, touching the earth's orbit at the point occupied by our globe on the 13th, 14th, and 15th of November ever year. In order to have something tangible to fix our ideas, we may conceive thi stream of nebulous matter as a stream o cobble stones, very much more numerous in some places than in others, but still a continuous stream occupying the whole of the periphery of the ellipse just described, and each one of the cobble stones accomplishing its revolution around the sun in about thir ty three years. Each November the earth plunges into the part of this stream which at that time happens to be in contact wit its path, and as each individual cobble stone shoots through the atmosphere the friction thus generated is so great as to raise it to a white heat, and it becomes visible for an instant as a falling star, or, in scientific language, a meteorite. If the part of the stream traversed by the earth is thin, and the stones far apart, the meteors will be comparatively few in number; but if the stream is thick and the stones numerous, then we have a meteoric shower.

The most singular part of the whole matter yet remains to be told, and that is, that within the last few months it has been proved almost beyond the possibility of a doubt that several small comets which have been recently observed actually move in and form a part of this stream. In other words, these comets are neither more nor less than rather large meteorites.

It has been stated above that the attraction of Uranus originally brought this stream of meteorites into the solar system, and it may be asked if it is not possible for the attraction of the earth to convert some of these bodies into permanent satellites of our planet. Such a thing is by no means impossible, and indeed the researches of an eminent European astronomer render it highly probable that the earth actually has at least one such attendant revolving around it in a period of less than four hours, but owing to the small size of the body it can only become visible under exceptionally favorable circumstances.

But to return to the main body of the stream. It was stated that it is thicker, and the meteorites more numerous, in some places than in others. In one particular region they are incomparably more thickly crowded together than in any other, and regularly once in about thirty-three years it returns to the point in space traversed by the path of the earth in November, and gives rise to the famous star showers about which so much has been said and written of late.

Now, let the reader picture to himself these meteorites hurrying on in their course through the depths of space. We will fix our attention more particularly upon the thickest and most crowded part of the stream, where they are as numerous as gnats in the summer air. All day Wednesday both they and the earth were rushing in a headlong chase to the same point of space, and about 3 o'clock on Thursday morning the earth plunged into the stream. Instantly stars began to fall thick as autumn leaves. Scarcely an instant passed that their quivering, fiery paths were not to be seen lighting up the silent sky, and for much of the time there were half a score in the air at once. Some were mere specks of light—faint sparks from the laboratory of nature—while others shone with a brilliancy surpassing that of the largest rockets, and with all the colors of the rainbow. At a quarter past 4 o'clock the earth had reached the thickest of the stream, and the celestial bombardment was at its height. Two observers, whose range of vision only embraced about half of the visible heavens, counted 193 meteors in ten minutes. They were flying past the earth at the rate of more than two thousand every hour, and as each one passed, the friction created by its flight through the atmosphere was so great that it burst into flame, lighting up the heavens, and for a brief instant contributing its mite to the brilliant spectacle, then plunging again into the depths of space, no more to be seen by mortal eye till at the expiration of another period of thirty-three years, when most of those who now beheld it shall be quietly resting

"Under the sod and the dew, Waiting the judgment day."

Perchance it may again contribute its share towards the grandest spectacle which the heavens ever present for the contemplation of mortals.

Such was the meteoric shower of the morning of November 14th, 1867. The most brilliant part of it occurred between the hours of half past 3 and half past 4, and immediately afterwards the number of meteors became perceptibly less. Perhaps the point most worthy of attention was the sudden and well-marked manner, in which the shower commenced. At 3 o'clock the meteors were not very numerous, but at 3:45 they began to increase in number, and at a quarter-past 4 the shower was at its height. They were then shooting across the sky at the rate of not less than from two thousand to twenty-five hundred an hour, and the fact that they all radiated from one point in the constellation Leo was glaringly evident. By twenty minutes before five the number was perceptibly less, but as the sky became quite overcast, it was unfortunately impossible to observe the termination of the display. No one can expect to witness a spectacle of such a character more than once in a life time; and the brilliancy and sublimity of that of last night was such as to stamp it indelibly upon the memories of those who were so fortunate as to behold it.

A child needs smiles as much as flowers need sunbeams. Children look little beyond the present moment. If a thing pleases, they are apt to seek it; if it displeases, they are prone to avoid it. If home is the place where faces are sour, and words harsh, and fault-finding is ever in the ascendant, be ye sure they will spend as many hours as possible elsewhere. Solomon's rod is a great institution, but there are cases not a few where a smile or a pleasant word will serve a better purpose, and be more agreeable to both parties.

The following story, told by a Northern paper, of a Yankee corps in the late war, is not bad:

"In the Arkansas campaign, the general officer found the entire —th grouped around a saw mill and weeping like Niobes. "Why, boys," he asked, "what is the matter?" "Matter enough," sobbed one enterprising volunteer. "Thus far we have never left anything behind; but we can't possibly steal this saw mill!"

Gen. Canby's Election Order.

HEADQRS. SECOND MILITARY DIST.,
CHARLESTON, S. C., Oct. 18, 1867.

General Orders No. 101.

By the terms of the Act of Congress entitled "An Act to provide for the more efficient government of the reb l States," passed March 2d, 1867, and of the Acts of March 23d, and July 19th, 1867, supplementary thereto,—it is made the duty of the Commanding General of this Military District to cause a registration to be made of the male inhabitants of the State of North Carolina, of the age of twenty-one years and upwards and qualified by the terms of said Acts to vote, and after such registration is complete, to order an election to be held at which the registered voters of said State shall vote for or against a Convention, for the purpose of establishing a Constitution and civil government for the said State, loyal to the Union, and for delegates to said Convention—and to give at least thirty days' notice of the time and place at which said election shall be held; and the said registration having been completed in the State of North Carolina, It is ordered:

First, That an election be held in the State of North Carolina, commencing on Tuesday, the 19th day of November, 1867, and ending on Wednesday, the 20th day of November, 1867, at which all registered voters of said State may vote "For a Convention," or "Against a Convention," and for delegates to constitute the Convention—in case a majority of the votes given on that question, shall be for a Convention, and in case a majority of the registered voters shall have voted on the question of holding such Convention.

Second. It shall be the duty of the Boards of Registration in North Carolina, commencing fourteen days prior to the election herein ordered, and giving reasonable public notice of the time and place thereof to revise for a period of five days the registration lists and upon being satisfied that any person not entitled thereto has been registered to strike the name of such person from the list; and such person shall not be entitled to vote. The Boards of Registration shall also, during the same period, add to such registers the names of all persons who at that time possess the qualifications required by said Acts—who have not already been registered.

Third. In deciding who are to be stricken from or added to the registration lists the Boards will be guided by the law of March 2d, 1867, and the laws supplementary thereto and their attention is especially directed to the Supplementary Act of July 19th, 1867.

Fourth. The said election will be held in each County or District at such places as may hereafter be designated, under the superintendence of the Boards of Registration as provided by law, and in accordance with instructions hereafter to be given to said Boards in conformity with the rule of Congress and as far as may be with the laws of North Carolina.

Fifth. All Judges and Clerks employed in conducting said election shall, before commencing to hold the same, be sworn to the faithful performance of their duties, and shall also take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by law for officers of the United States.

Sixth. The polls shall be opened at each voting place at eight o'clock in the forenoon and closed at four o'clock afternoon, of the day, and shall be kept open during these hours without intermission or adjournment.

Seventh. No member of the Board of Registration, who is a candidate for election as a delegate to the Convention, shall serve as a Judge of the election in any County or District which he seeks to represent.

Eighth. The Sheriff and other peace officers of each County are required to be present during the whole time that the polls are kept open, and until the election is completed; and will be made responsible that there shall be no interference with Judges of elections, or other interruption of good order. If there should be more than one polling place in any County, the sheriff of the County is empowered to make such assignments of his deputies, and other peace officers, to the other polling places, as may, in his judgment, best subserve the purposes of quiet and order; and he is further required to report these arrangements in advance to the Commander of the Military Post in which his County is situated.

Ninth. Violence, or threats of violence, or of discharge from employment or other oppressive means to prevent any person from registering, or exercising his right of voting, is positively prohibited, and any such attempts will be reported by the Registrars or Judges of elections to the Post Commander, and will cause the arrest and trial of the offenders by military authority.

Tenth. All bar rooms, saloons and other places for the sale of liquors by retail, will be closed from 6 o'clock of the evening of the 18th of November, until 6 o'clock of the morning of the 21st of November, 1867, and during this time the sale of all intoxicating liquors at or near any polling place is prohibited. The police officers of cities and towns, and the Sheriffs and other peace officers of Counties, will be held responsible for the strict enforcement of this prohibition, and will promptly arrest and hold for trial all persons who may transgress it.

Eleventh. Military interference with elections "unless it shall be necessary to repel the armed enemies of the United States, or to keep the peace at the polls," is prohibited by the Act of Congress approved February 25th, 1865, and no soldiers will be allowed to appear at any polling place, unless as citizens of the State they are qualified and are registered as voters, and then only for the purpose of voting; but the Commanders of Posts will keep their troops well in hand on the days of election, and will be prepared to act promptly if the civil authorities are unable to preserve the peace.

Twelfth. The returns required by law to be made to the Commander of the District of the results of this election, will be rendered by the Boards of Registration of the several registration precincts through the Commanders of the Military Posts in which their precincts are situated, and in accordance with the detailed instructions hereafter to be given.

Thirteenth. The number of delegates to the Convention is determined by law and is the number of members of the most numerous branch of the Legislature for the year eighteen hundred and sixty, and this number, one hundred and twenty, is apportioned to the representative Districts of the State in the ratio of registered voters as follows:

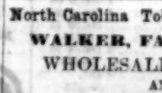
THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER.

This Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine



IS OFFERED TO THE Public as a ready, certain and speedy means of preventing LARGE CONFLAGRATIONS.

Until the invention of the

Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine,

Fires have been met by means too slow, too late and too cumbrous. But few persons in this country have the advantage of large hand or Steam Fire Engines, and those few often suffer a total loss of their property by reason of the great length of time consumed in sending for and getting them into working order.

BUT NOT SO WITH THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER, which being kept charged and standing in your House, Store or Factory, is always Ready for Instant Service.

The fire can be extinguished and your property saved without loss or damage, or even an alarm of Fire.

The first few minutes of conflagration decide the fate of the property; "a little fire is quickly put out, which, being suffered, rivers cannot quench."

THE EXTINGUISHER, being very simple in its operation, and entirely self-propelling, requires no previous skill or practice to operate it, and being so light, portable and self-acting, is capable of being used in any place, by any person, male or female.

It puts out all fires, arising from whatever cause. You are saved from the immense water damage caused by large Engines.

You can effect insurance on your property

At Lower Rates,

if protected by the Extinguisher.

The Extinguisher is no humbug, as thousands of good men in Europe and America will testify. I have already put these little Engines into some of our best Factories and largest Schools in N. C.

No House, Store, Factory or Corporation is safe without them.

The price is as nothing, compared with the protection they afford.

Send for a Circular.
